Entertainments

MRS. EDRINGTON COMPLIMENTS HER MOTHER, MRS. BETHELL Mrs. John Price Edrington was the charming hostess at one of the most elegantly appointed luncheons of the season on Monday afternoon when she entertained at the Hotel Gayoso in spe-cial compliment to her mother, Mrs. W. D. Bethell, of Denver, who is her guest for saveral weaks.

When Mrs. Bethell lived in Memphls and her daughters were young girls in society her home was one of the most hospitable in the city and many recall with pleasure the happy times spent there. Since she has made her home in Denver, she has been a frequent guest in the home of her daughter. Mrs. Edrington, who is a leader in the affairs of the smart set. Mrs. Bethell has hundreds of friends in Memphis, but for the luncheon the guest list was limited to 28 of her special friends. For the occasion Mrs. Edrington chose a lovely spring decorative scheme in which pink was the dominant color note. The floral centerplece was of roses and freesias, around which were pink begonias, the artistic effect being heightened by pink tapers burning in silver candlesticks, their lights softened by Dresden silk shades.

Mrs. Edrington was beautifully gowned for the afternoon in gray chiffon, hand-embroidered in silver, with a red spring hat, while the honoree. Mrs. Bethell, was handsomely gowned in black, hand-embroidered georgette crepe, with a touch of real lace, with which she wore a black hat trimmed with taupe feathers. r several weeks.
